Blacksmithing has been a profession since man discovered iron and needed people to manipulate it into useful items for the times such as weapons, household goods, tools and decorations. The Industrial Revolution (the age of machines) saw an end of the era when every community had a blacksmith. Renewed interest in lost arts and a desire for more one-of-a-kind, handmade items has caused a resurgence in the art of blacksmithing.

Tim Carr along with other members of the Michigan Artist Blacksmith Association will be featured in this exhibition of the finished wrought iron artwork, tools and process of the art of blacksmithing.

A demonstration day is scheduled for April 25, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Fremont Marketplace Pavilion just behind NCCA-Artsplace. Enjoy the exhibit inside while Michigan Artist Blacksmith Association members demonstrate their techniques at a portable forge

March 7 - Grand Rapids Ballet presents "Swan Lake"

A timeless story of tragic love and deception. Odette, a beautiful princess, is cursed by the evil sorcerer Von Rothbart to live as a swan forever. Her spell can only be broken if a prince swears his everlasting love to her. Tchaikovsky's magical score and the illustrious Black Swan pas de deux have made "Swan Lake" one of the most enduring, moving and admired classical ballets of all time. Program funded in part by Fremont Area Community Foundation and Gerber Foundation. Tickets $17.50 Adults, $10.00 kids 18 and under. Main Stage, 7:30 p.m.

March 21 - Songs of the Fall

Cia Cherryholmes returns to the Dogwood Center! She first appeared on the Main Stage with Mark O'Connor's Appalachian Christmas in 2013. Songs of the Fall, comprised of Stetson Adkisson and Cia Cherryholmes, is a Nashville based Americana duo with a love of music that communicates to people on a very personal, relatable level. "We love playing and singing our songs for people. We try to write about the things that move us and hope the realness of the songs carries across to the audience. The greatest compliment we can receive is someone telling us a song touched them or made them weep or that it was their story. Life is rough, and we all want that one song we can rock out or cry along to," states Cia. Tickets $12.50. Black Box, 7:30 p.m.

April 1 - Grand Rapids Symphony

The Grand Rapids Symphony and conductor John Varineau return to the Dogwood Center on Wednesday, April 1 for a sure to be incredible performance! April 17 - Harpeth Rising

The group chose to name themselves after a river because water is both dynamic and powerful. These words also describe the music created by the three women – Jordana Greenberg (violin, vocals), Rebecca Reed-Lunn (banjo, vocals) and Maria Di Meglio (cello, vocals). Unapologetic genre-benders, they fuse Folk, Newgrass, Rock and Classical into a sound that is organically unique. Tickets $15. Black Box, 7:30 p.m.

May 16 - Kathy LaMar

Kathy LaMar is back in the Black Box! LaMar has displayed her vocal talents from Vegas to Shang-hi for the past 30 years and is a favorite performer in the Black Box at the Dogwood. Kathy has supplied her vocal talents to the likes of Lola Falana, Wayne Newton, Gladys Knight, The Four Tops, and even Todd Rundgren! LaMar sings a diverse blend of jazz, R&B, soul and pop hits - everything from Bob Marley to Ella Fitzgerald. No matter what she sings, LaMar's powerful voice wakes up a room. Accompanying LaMar will be Scott Veenstra (drums), Warren Jones (bass), and Steve Talaga (piano). Tickets $12.50. Black Box, 7:30 p.m.
